

Alone and Together

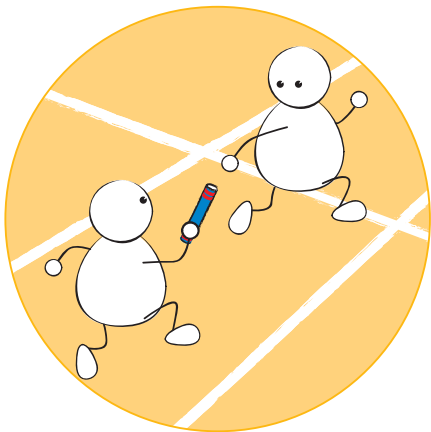

Time to think ... and share ideas

As a group — Explore the difference between:

“Dependence”

“Independence”

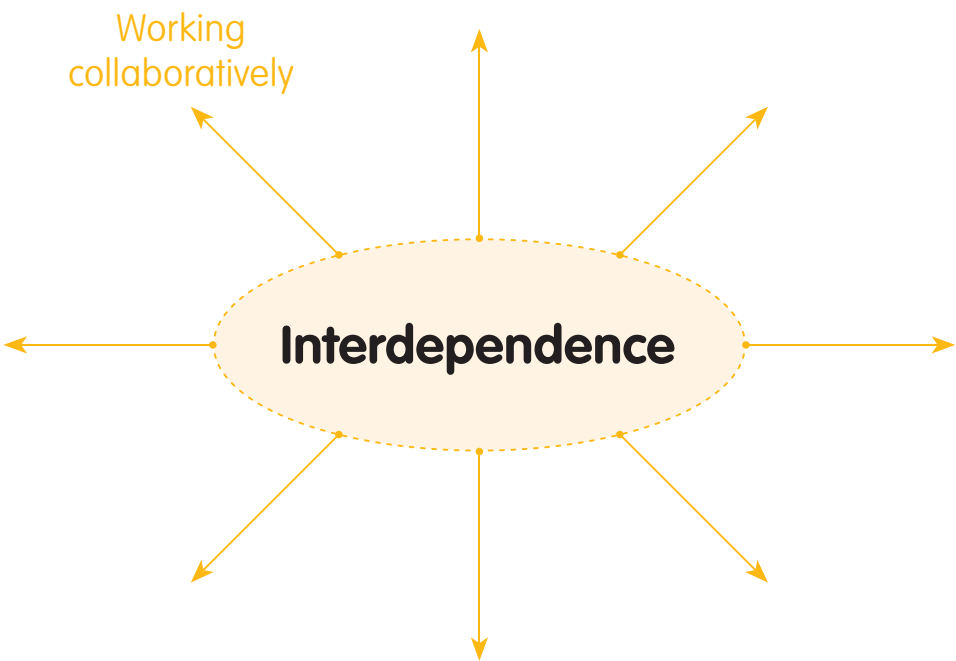

“Interdependence”

Think of situations when each is useful.

A way with words

What does interdependence mean to you?

Me-now!

In what situations am I an interdependent learner?

Rate yourself in different subjects, activities, doing something new, doing something you’re confident in

Can make good decisions about learning alone or with others
Can contribute to group learning in this — help others too
Good at this on my own
OK on my own but helped by reminders and encouragement
Starting to be able to do this on my own with help
Prefer to work by myself and need a lot of help
