

DIY Resource: Balloon Challenge

Cards suitable for use in Balloon Challenge

Print out and cut up.

You are a market gardener. You grow special flowers for markets in the city and you know a lot about growing vegetables.	You are an accountant. You specialise in keeping people’s tax affairs in order and you know a lot about using money wisely.
You are a doctor. You specialise in ear, nose and throat complaints and have been in general practice for some years.	You are a computer programmer. You have designed computer systems that model global warming and you have brought your computer with you.
You are a builder. You specialise in building interesting new buildings made of glass and steel and you have also built your own house.	You are a farmer. You specialise in sheep farming and bee keeping. You know a lot about animals.