Questioning learning mat

I take careful note of the answers. These help me construct the next questions.

I asked a useful open question.

I used a useful closed question to clarify my search.

I turned a statement into a question.

I asked a tricky question without upsetting the person

I asked some 'between-the-line' questions.

I can sort 'useful' from 'not useful' questions.

I'm learning how to ask 'data-gathering' questions.
