

Reflections on Section 1A - The Warp and Weft of Learning

The Supple Learning Mind - the warp of learning

How does this connect with what you already knew about learning? Have you ever thought about learning in this way before?

How has this extended your thinking about learning? Has it given you any new insights?

What questions are you now asking yourself? What do you want to find out more about?

Can you understand why we chose Perseverance, Questioning, Collaborating and Revising as the 4 foundational learning behaviours?

The Teachers' Palette - the weft of learning

How does this connect with what you already knew about classroom cultures? Have you ever thought about your classroom in this way before?

How has this extended your thinking about how you create your classroom culture? Has it given you any new insights?

What questions are you now asking yourself? What do you want to find out more about?
