

Does my classroom culture encourage capitalising?

This is a consistent feature in my classroom

This is an occasional feature in my classroom

This is rarely evident in my classroom

This is something I would like to work on

My students make independent choices

My students select from a range of strategies to tackle problems

My students make imaginative use of resources and of other people

I talk about what successful learners do / are doing

I ask 'how else might you do it?', and 'what else might you use?'

Classroom talk is about successful learning habits and how they can be copied / adapted

I provide a bank of freely accessible resources

I create opportunities for students to make discerning use of the internet

I create opportunities to choose independently from a wide range of resources and strategies

Display celebrates successful strategies that can be copied

Students are praised for finding a novel way to use a familiar strategy or resource

Students are praised/rewarded for their independent, enterprising efforts
