

Spotting Questioning

Do they . . . . ?

Ask questions to find out factual information

Look for information in a book or on the internet

Ask questions to find out what others think

Think about my questions before they try to answer

Listen carefully to others' answers to my questions

Think carefully about the answers they find on the internet

Ask 'what if' type questions to explore their ideas

Ask questions about the answers to their own questions

Plan the questions they intend to ask so they do not cause offence

Ask great questions that tell them exactly what they need to know